

Paper View: The Best of the Sunday Times Television Columns (Hardback)

By A. A. Gill

Orion Publishing Co, United Kingdom, 2008. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 154 mm. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. AA Gill has been the must-read television critic in the Sunday Times Culture section for more than ten years. This collection of some of the best writing from his columns is broken down into themes - Sport, Costume Drama, Detectives, Children's Television, and News. And now it's over to AA Gill. Those who complain, usually from the Parnassian heights of print journalism, that TV is dumbed-down and peddles dross to the lowest common denominator, citing Big Brother or Celibate Love Island, miss the point. Reality TV is the exception; it's a tiny proportion of television's output. Most of broadcasting tells you things, and it's TV's great gift to impart information. The real criticism should be that it doesn't differentiate enough. It doesn't know the value of the stuff it pours out in a constant warm stream. We absorb what's useful and interesting. In barely a generation, the information from television has changed the way we see the world and everyone in it. That's no small achievement. Television really does make a...
