H: For the Year Ending February 15, 1901 It is well at the commencement of a new century, to give more than a passing thought to the school children and the condition of our schools. The town or one district system has had a fair trial, and while it is impossible for us to know in what condition our schools would have been, had we kept on in the old way, it is certain that it is not now, perfection. No permanent change has been made either in combining or grading our schools, but it is evident, that in the best interests of our schools, both reforms are much needed - neither of which can be successfully wrought without the hearty co-operation of all, and especially in the matter of grading, will it take time and patience. Our school year is short and we raise only enough money to satisfy the law (about $5 in excess). This condition has been the cause of our failure to...
