The Secessionists Vote (Paperback)

By Khristophe Keen

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A team of high school aged California intellectuals form a secret textbook publishing propaganda machine where they disseminated high quality copies with a hardcore evolutionist agenda to the schools of Texas. The young California intellectuals intervened with the assumption that Texas leaders were suffering from collective borderline personality disorder, the chaotic actions which produce negative consequences upset logical thinkers. Forced busing became the rallying call for big business verse local parenting groups. But two teens in love searched for the single vote which could change it all, their flipbook propaganda animation activated by sunlight. Same-sex marriage became the law across the federal landscape, individual states having no real choice. North Colorado quietly seceded, the first modern nation landlocked by a protective military buffer zone. California split side becoming two states, the north mainly focusing on high tech research and development, while the south maintained a stranglehold on the nation's military industrial complex. Our USDA agent finds allegiance with the new state of Southern California, his clandestine methodology leading toward catastrophe though. The president could not hold America...
