Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Buffalo: Milligan We have tried to show some small measure of appreciation and esteem for our beloved President and Mrs. Hopwood by dedicating our book to them, and we wish to share this with some representative members of the Alumni. From a number of letters that have come to us we have chosen the following extracts which are a fair and unexaggerated representation of the sentiment which prevails among those who have been fortunate enough to have been under the tuition of these venerable leaders of educational and religious reform. Virtue alone outbuilds the pyramids. Brother and Sister Hopwood have erected for themselves a monument more enduring than brass. They have called before them young men and women and stamped upon them noble ideals and sent them forth as world builders. Few have made a greater contribution to the world - a college, a name, an influence, and greatest of all - a life It was in the fall of 1885 that I first met Prof, and Mrs. Hopwood, and during the intervening thirty-three years they have played a conspicuous part in my life. Prof. Hopwood baptized me and ordained me to the ministry. But this is not all. His robust faith, firmness of purpose, and persistent efforts to advance righteousness have been to me a constant source of inspiration. His has been a man s task, and he has faithfully performed it. Only eternity will reveal the great work he has accomplished. And as to Mrs. Hopwood - all who have sat in her classes and listened to her pure English, been impressed by her reserve and symmetry of character, and have had...
