But it depends 1832. upon the time elapsing between the blow and the injury; and also, whether the injury was inflicted with an instru-ment at the moment in the possession of the party, or whe-ther he went to fetch it from another place. It is uncer-tain, in this case, how long the prisoner was absent. The witness says from five to ten minutes, according to the best of his knowledge. Unless attention is particularly called to it, it seems to me that evidence of time is very uncer-tain. The prisoner may have been absent less than five minutes. There is no evidence that he went anywhere for the knife. The father says, it was a knife he carried about with him, it was a common knife, such as a man in the pri-soner s situation in life might have: for aught that appears, he might have gone a little way from the deceased and then returned, still smarting under the blow he had receiv-ed. You will also take into consideration the previous habits and connection of the deceased and the prisoner with respect to each other. If there had been any old grudge between them, then the crime which the prisoner committed might be murder. But it seems they had been long in habits of intimacy, and on the very night in ques-tion, about an hour before the blow, they had been drinking in a friendly way together. If you think...
