It was also announced that Donations to the Library of books, maps, etc. , had been received from the various Governments of the Colonies and India, Societies, and public bodies both in the United Kingdom and the Colonies, and from Fellows of the Institute and others. The Chairman: My next duty is to introduce to you Mr. Benjamin Kidd. That is a purely formal matter; for, no doubt, he is better known to you than his introducer. As the author of Social Evolution, he struck a note in this country, some nine years ago, which we are not likely to forget. He followed that by another work, The Control of the Tropics, and he has recently published a third work, The Principles of Western Civilisation. Mr. Kidd then read his Paper on THE STATE IN RELATION TO TRADE. It is necessary that I should offer an apology in addressing an audience like this on such a subject as national trade. It is composed of many who possess a far larger experience than mine of...
