This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject American Studies - Culture and Applied Geography, grade: 2,0, Martin Luther University (Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik - Fachbereich American & British Studies), course: Einführung in die USA-Studien: American Government and U.S. Political Culture, 22 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: Whether one regards the upcoming presidential elections in 2008 or any congressional election in the recent past, it is almost impossible to neglect the importance and influence of the organized interest in the political system of the United States. Both economic groups such as business groups, labor unions, the farmers and professional groups and non-economic groups like single and public interest groups, ethnic and idealistic groups or the intergovernmental lobby play an essential role in the political process. For instance, lobbying organizations play an essential role for the candidates in their election campaigns. They contribute a potential source of financial support. In order to persuade the candidates of representing their particular interest, they distribute huge amounts of money to their chosen candidate or party. This paper...
