This rule is without exception. It prevails in Savannah. Mayor Aldermen of Savannah v. Weed, 84 Ga. 683. The property in question is situate in that city, and, as already said, its beneficial ownership is not in the municipality, but in those who long ago purchased it from the city or who hold under such purchasers by succession to their title. Relatively to the question of taxation, it makes no substantial difference whether the estate or property or beneficial owners be classed as realty or personalty; whatever property of either kind belongs to them is taxable ad valorem. That the so-called ground rent lots, as long as the conditions of sale are unbroken, are the property of the purchasers, follows from what was decided by this court in Laurence v. The Mayor, 71 Ga. 392; and that case shows...
