I hope this accomplishment, which James certainly possesses in no common degree, may be of use to him. Good reading puts me in mind of our friend Mr. Champagne. He was, I am sorry to say, not able to partake of the good things you sent me, being confined by a severe cold to his room for ten days; but the last time I saw him he was quite recovered. He does not think he can avail himself of your invitation to Bever, as his excursions are now limited to visits to his nephews. Since I last wrote I have been elected an Honorary Associate of the Royal Society of Literature. This is, at present, only an honour, except that it gives me a free entree to their meetings; but it makes me V eligible for an Associate, in case of a vacancy; and...
