Excerpt: .finished to receive the crown which the Lord, the righteous Judge will give! Respectfully submitted, S. T. SEARLE, Chairman. J. M. WAGNER. HENRY D. B. MULFORD. The following communication was received from the Permanent Clerk. Its recommendations were approved, and the request made was granted: The Permanent Clerk begs leave to report to the General Synod, that he has been engaged for more than five years past in an effort to secure complete sets of the printed Minutes of the General Synod, for preservation in the Archives. It has been a work of considerable difficulty. He has succeeded in making up two sets, has a third set with the exception of copies of three sessions (June 1816 and 1817, and September 1825), and a fourth one with the exception of copies five sessions (June 1815, 1816, 1817, September 1825, and June 1826.) He respectfully...
